Acetylene Gas. We are now prepared to place on the market our machines for generating Acetylene Gas. These machines are adapted for lighting stores, factories, churches and private residences. Small towns and farmers can now have gas as well as those in the cities, as each consumer controls his own little gas plant, which is quite inexpensive. We guarantee to furnish six times as much light at less than half the expense of ordinary gas, electric light or kerosene lamps. A first-class agent is wanted in every county to sell our machines.

A SLICK FARMER

Got a Hair Cut, Shampoo and Hair Dye.

The Bill was $7.50. But He Would Pay But 25 Cents.

Tom Thrust, of Ballard county, arrived in Paducah yesterday afternoon, this afternoon, after having himself out in Clark. Lever's chair, called for a hair cut, shampoo and hair dye.

In the course of a few hours the job was completed, and the farmer, graciously offered a twenty-five cents. The bill was $5.50.

The barber stood against and the colloquy that followed soon provoked roars of laughter from the customers who happened to be in the shop. But the farmer was obstinate, and resolutely stood his ground. He paid a quarter, and that's all he did pay. The other $5.25 is the barber's loss.

A STRANGE PROCESSION.

A Man and His Family Attract Attention on Broadway.

A quaint family passed down Broadway today for a ten-day sojourn. A man, woman and three small children ornamented an odd procession with their hooped and over-the-hill.

The man and woman appeared to be middle-aged people, and were probably gypsies. They had two dogs, and associated no other person as they proceeded to the river. There was nothing in the party except a baby, and the man and woman walked behind and helped the emaciated horse by pushing.

A COMING MARRIAGE.

Mr. Robt. A. Hardwick, recently a visitor here to Wed—Will Live Here.

The marriage of Mr. Robt. A. Hardwick, who was a guest of Mr. W. L. Thompson, the tailor, until a
